

MAXITECH PHARMA (PVT) LTD.

As a CEO of Maxitech Pharma (Pvt) Ltd, Nadir Hasan Khan is responsible for running all facets of the business. Nadir Hasan Khan is a visionary thinker with global perspective & entrepreneurial drive. He is well versed with the overall management of the company and possesses vast amount of hands-on experience in marketing for more than 30 years. Under his able & dynamic leadership, Maxitech Pharma has grown rapidly to attain newer milestones and the highest level of performance. He is the principal architect for the progress of the organization. He set his objective to develop footprint in domestic & international market by his confidence & untiring effort, the organization gained momentum in terms of develop essential capabilities for the new challenges.

ABOUT US:

Maxitech Pharma is a well-known pharmaceutical company based at Karachi, started its journey in the year 2001. We have established manufacturing facility by leveraging state-of-the-art technology, incorporating best practices and adhering to regulatory compliances. We employ the latest technology, automated ensuring the highest quality of healthcare, we possess end-to-end capabilities-from Lab scale development to pilot scale up and from commercializing the product for large scale manufacturing to market the product.

Facility consist of fourteen dedicated areas of manufacturing including, General Category medicine, Cephalosporin (oral & Injectable) & Carbapenems. Our R&D capabilities include dossier development, process optimization, formulation development, analytical development and conducting stability studies. We have a team of experienced, skilled persons specializing in formulation development and analytical development. The company has achieved global recognition within a very short span of time and has major global expansion plans for the near future.

FOCUS:

Our key focus areas lie in the Prescription drugs & OTC that have wide-ranging applications across fields like, Dermatology, Antibiotics, Ophthalmology, Orthopedics, Antidiabetic & Cardiovascular. Establishing a strong marketing presence in domestic markets by future expansion in field of oncology & Gynae

Objective:

Maxitech Pharma's main objective is to provide effective, well-tolerated medicines to the patients at affordable price. We increase our chances of developing ground breaking treatments that will provide real patients benefit by multiplying and diversifying pharmacological and scientific approaches.

Vision:

Our vision is to be recognized on both national and international level as a successful company in the Pharmaceutical field.

Mission:

Our mission is to apply science and global resources to improve health and well-being at every stage of life. We accomplish our vision and mission by transforming our belief into goals, through:

Technological Excellence

Flexible & dynamic strategies

Motivational working environment

Permanent growth of the company in order to respond to the market's demands.

Values:

At Maxitech Pharma our value define our ethics and serve as the moral compass of the company.

Commitments:

We are committed to:

Introduce advance products for prevention, treatments and cures.

Set the standard for quality, safety and value of medicine.

Be a leading voice for improving everyone's ability to have reliable & affordable health care.

QUALITY POLICY:

Maxitech Pharma is fully committed to deliver safe, effective and quality products to consumer and patients, as a fundamental element of their mission and objective.

To meet this commitment Maxitech Pharma has created a focused Quality culture to ensure that highest priority be assigned on the safety, efficacy, quality and reliability of our products and maintain trust with our stakeholder. Each individual within the organization is accountable and responsible for ensuring the products safety and quality throughout the life cycle of the products.

Maxitech Pharma commitment includes:

- That they will always be compliance with the applicable regulations, requirements, codes and standards.
- Departmental leaders are accountable to ensure that the procedures are in place and adequately defined to support the safety of patients and consumers.
- Maxitech Pharma ensures that their workers have the appropriate education, training, skills & the experience to carry out their work competently in accordance with the applicable rules, regulation and requirements.
- Maxitech Pharma ensures that they maintain a robust management, documentation control system in accordance with the international standards.
- Maxitech Pharma keeps all documents and their records uniformly, consistently with a high integrity.

Maxitech Pharma quality policy is implemented through a comprehensive Quality Management System (QMS) and their performance is monitored and regularly reviewed to ensure that standards meet high expectation of quality for our patient, consumer and stakeholder.

MANUFACTURING FACILITY

PHARMACEUTICAL MANUFACTURING SECTIONS

OUR CERTIFICATION

ISO 9001: 2015 & HACCP
Certified Organization